

Mavuno

GRASSROOTS DEVELOPMENT FOR CONGO

COMMUNICATIONS INTERNSHIP

Mavuno is ending extreme poverty and conflict in the Democratic Republic of Congo. How? By empowering local leaders to create their own solutions to poverty. Mavuno is a new organization, but we're already making a huge difference in eastern Congo. We need to grow, and we need your help.

We're looking for a communications student who is:

- Interested in international development or humanitarian work
- Excited about engaging on social media
- A skilled writer
- A graphic designer, video editor, or photo editor (optional)

You'll work closely with Mavuno's communications director (a UMKC alumni), gaining valuable experience in the nonprofit sector while contributing your skills to make a difference in Congo.

This internship is unpaid and can be used to fulfill ComS 484 requirements. Time commitment is variable.
