

Internship

Here's your chance build your resume — while making a positive impact in the community.

Work with our Marketing and Communications team on social media campaigns, infographics, website maintenance and expanding the library of collateral. Learn how to work in a professional setting, build your portfolio, manage vendors and develop relationships with community partners.

Love art? We do too. You'll have a chance to put your artistic talent to use taking compelling photographs that expand your portfolio and help raise awareness and support for the mission and vision of Catholic Charities.

Interested? Email your resume and portfolio to Hannah Brockway at hbrockway@ccharities.com by March 31, 2015.

What you'll be doing

- Working with local print houses and publishers
- Day tripping through the city taking photographs
- Helping with one of our biggest fundraising events
- Preparing files to print
- Creating infographics
- Keeping and updating the physical library of collateral
- Updating flyers
- Digitizing forms
- Creating business cards and nametags

Aren't good at everything on this list? That's okay. We are looking for 1 to 3 interns with a variety of talents.
