

PAGE COMMUNICATIONS

HUNGRY FOR REAL WORK?

Satisfy your cravings with a Social Media & Public Relations Internship at Page Communications.

CASUAL DRESS CODE.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULE.

GOOD PAY.

Now accepting only the tastiest resumés peppered with the perfect ingredients for our spring internship. We are picky eaters, so taste test before serving us your materials.

For more information on our available positions and how to apply, see the back of this flyer or visit pagecomms.com/news.

---

APPLY BY: DEC. 1

We will be stuffed full of tasty treats and can't take one more bite after the deadline, so please apply now!

SPRING INTERNSHIP 2018

WHO WE ARE

Page Communications is a bite-sized public relations firm serving the Kansas City area since 2010. We primarily serve delicious clients in the restaurant, retail and hospitality industries. We're really fun and we love to eat free food. The end.

WORK YOU'LL DO

- Create posts and manage Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for multiple real clients
- Create email newsletters
- Design basic graphics for social media & newsletters
- Write press releases and advisories
- Maintain and organize media library
- Research and create media and community outreach lists

WHO WE NEED

Does social media excite you? Are you passionate about sharing information? Do you thrive in environments that encourage creativity? Most importantly, do you love to eat? If you answered yes to all of these questions, we want you! We are looking for fast learners, excellent writers and those with extreme attention to detail. Social media experience is strongly preferred. Must be familiar with AP style. Must be comfortable working individually, as well as on a team.

APPLY BY: DEC. 1

If interested in the spring intern position, please email breanne@pagecomms.com by Dec. 1 with your resumé, writing sample and a drool-worthy essay on what food you would be and why.