- General Education course review discussion
  - The Faculty Senate appointed the General Education Curriculum Committee (GECC) for review and approval of all general education course proposals
  - Concerns were raised about Anchor course exclusion from degree requirements

- Track proposal process discussion
- Should track (non-transcripted concentration area) proposals and modifications go through committee review?
  - If part of major requirements and tracked in DARS, they should go through a formal review
  - Continue discussion

- Student Learning Outcomes
  - Nathan Lindsay requests that course proposals that require a revision of student learning outcomes be provisionally approved by the UCC. He will work with the units to revise the SLO’s, replace in Curriculum Navigator, and then move forward to the next level of review. The UCC recommends this process for all future reviews.
