OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- If you leave the US after your change of status has been approved, you will need to visit a US Consulate or Embassy in your home country to obtain your actual F-visa in order to re-enter the US in your new status.
- Must maintain your current visa status until a new status is approved. Allowing your F-1 to terminate or complete could result in your F-2 being denied.
- Must inform ISAO of any request for evidence, approval, denial, and receipt notice number.
- A change of status can take anywhere from 2 to 12 months but it could take longer.
- You should receive an I-797, A Notice of Action from USCIS within 10 days of the date your check or money order was cashed. If you do not receive this form, please contact ISAO. The I-797 form is a general notice, not an Approval or Denial of your Change of Status; however, approvals and denials are also issued on I-797 forms.
- As an F-2 visa holder, you will NOT be allowed to work on-campus or off-campus. No exceptions. You would be eligible to apply for and be admitted into a degree-seeking program but you would not allowed to be enrolled full-time and you would not receive any F-1 benefits such as CPT or OPT.
- Accruing 180 days of unlawful presence will result in a 3 year bar from the U.S. and over 180 days will result in a 10 year bar.
