

Research Assistant 7640 (Non-Exempt)

Research Assistants engage in research on sponsored or other research projects under the supervision of faculty or other research staff and may lead lower-level professional and technical support staff in research. Appropriate activities include data collection & processing, organizing and drafting materials for research papers and/or presentation, and independent research under the guidance of a faculty member. Minimum qualifications include a Bachelor's degree.