

Madam
PRESIDENT
- CAMP™

The Madam President Camp is for girls ages 10 to 13.
Girls this age are getting serious about who they are and about the world around them. They face tough challenges and make difficult decisions. Help your daughter build leadership skills, learn about politics, and join a fun and supportive network of peers, civic mentors and parents.

Staff: Julie Warm, Ph.D. - Camp Director. Dr. Warm has extensive experience in local government, non-profit management, and higher education administration. She originally trained as a city planner and city manager and served in those capacities in Ohio, Nevada, and Missouri. Her last position was as City Manager in Reno, Nevada. For more than twenty years, she has worked in academe as a community liaison, administrator, and researcher. Dr. Warm's academic preparation focused on organizational drivers for social entrepreneurship. Dr. Warm's current duties with the UMKC Institute for Human Development focus on supporting the civic engagement of women and students. As a volunteer, Warm advocates for people with disabilities and has served on the board of the Developmental Disability Services of Jackson County-EITAS, a county-level funding agency, and the Business Leadership Network. Currently she is a board member of the Kansas City Mayor's Committee for People with Disabilities and is the founding Executive Director of a nonprofit to support inclusion of people with intellectual disabilities in higher education.

Dr. Warm will be assisted by three paid high-school and/or college interns and women community volunteers and civic leaders.
