

Multimedia Internship

Lore Media

Summer 2019, Course Credit Only (Unpaid), Flexible Hours, (Apply by May 8th)

Lore Media

We're a video production team that believes every story deserves to be told. We're a team of creative collaborators from the Kansas City area that strongly believes collaboration between client and crew is extremely valuable. Lore Media works on variety of projects ranging from: live sports, traditional TV ads, digital content and music videos. You will see work produced with Sporting KC, MLS, McDonald's, Adidas, Children's Mercy and several other smaller clients.

Internship

The Lore Media internship will give you experience in all areas of production. Not only will you assist Lore Media team members with current and ongoing projects, you will produce your own project with a non-profit of your choice by the end of the summer. We will assist you in this process and provide any resources we have including professional gear to help you produce and direct the story.

Please send resume and/or email describing your production interests and skills to Casey Wertz casey@becomelore.com.
