

Fellow Medievalist:

At present there exists no convenient forum for medieval studies between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi. The need for such a conference was demonstrated in March, 1975, when some eighty medievalists were attracted to Kansas City for a Saturday program featuring Professors Karl Bosl, Piotr Skubiszewski, and Jerry Stannard. The event was jointly sponsored by the history departments of the University of Kansas and the University of Missouri-Kansas City. The success of that program has encouraged us to organize the present conference in the hope that this may provide the nucleus for a regional association of medievalists in the states surrounding Kansas City — namely, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. You are cordially invited to join with us in forming the Mid America Medieval Association.
