

MID-AMERICA MEDIEVAL ASSOCIATION: ANNUAL MEETING

Little Rock, Arkansas, Saturday, March 6, 1982.

MORNING

- 8:30 - 9:00 Coffee and doughnuts
- 9:00 - 9:30 Welcome: C. Fred Williams, Associate Dean, College of Liberal Arts,
University of Arkansas at Little Rock
- 9:30 - 12:00 General Session: History and Literature
- Part I: The Celtic Fringe of Medieval Europe
- "Eccentrics, Extremists, and Other 19th Century Celticists," Marilyn Jackson Parins, University of Arkansas at Little Rock
- "Shrewsbury and Hereford: Two Frontier Towns,"
Janet Meisel, University of Texas at Austin
- Part II: The Interpretation of Texts
- "The Ideal and the Actual: The Philosophical Unity of the Canterbury Tales Ms. Grp. III,"
Julian Wasserman, University of St. Thomas, Houston, Texas
- "The Translator's Art: The Legend of St. Yvo of Brittany from the Codex Sangallensis, Nr. 589," Patricia A. Giangrosso, Northeast Louisiana University, Monroe, Louisiana
- 12:00 - 1:00 Luncheon on Campus

AFTERNOON

- 1:00 Business Meeting
- 1:30 - 2:15 Key Note Address: "Those Other Orders and the Medieval Social Gospel," James Brodman, University of Central Arkansas, Conway, Arkansas

2:30 - 4:00 History: The Cavalry Question Reconsidered

"Cavalry in the Late Roman Empire," David Miller, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma.

"Medieval Cavalry in the Light of Recent Scholarship," Carroll M. Gillmor, United States Naval Academy,
Annapolis, Maryland

Comment: Charles R. Bowlus, University of Arkansas at Little Rock

2:30 - 4:00 Literature

"The games of Love and the Love of Games: A Portrait of society in Medieval French Theatre," Tamara Alvarez-Detrell, University of Central Arkansas, Conway, Arkansas

"Linking Words as Layers of the Pearl," Barbara Huval, Rice University, Houston, Texas

"A Legal Approach to the Poem of the Cid," Michael Paulson,
University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

EVENING AT PAUL'S LAMPLIGHTER

6:00 - 7:00 Cash Bar

7:00 Dinner

Address by Jerry Stannard, University of Kansas, Lawrence, KS.