

Graduate Dual Degree Policies

Dual-degree programs allow students to pursue simultaneously degrees at the master's level in two fields of study. Students must complete at least 80 percent (rounded up) of the credit hours required for each degree separately. Students must satisfy admission, course, and examination requirements of both degree programs.